Art Unit: 2829

1. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is unclear how the first and second transistors are interconnected and associated with the gate lines and data lines. Furthermore, it is unclear how the first transistor and second transistor are interconnected with each other.

In claim 4, it is unclear whether the first transistor is the same as the one in claim 3.

In claim 6, it is unclear whether the first transistor is the same as the one in claim 5.

In claims 8-9, it is unclear what "a common electrode" represents. Is it shown in any of drawings?

In claim 10, it is unclear what "a first control pad", "first probe pad", "second control pad" and "second probe pad" represent. Are they shown in any of drawings? Furthermore, it is unclear how the first and second transistors are interconnected and associated with each other.

In claim 19, it is unclear whether "the data line select/hold circuit is connected to the same third control pad as the one in claim 18.

In claim 20, it is unclear whether "the data line select/hold circuit is connected to the same third control pad and third control pads in claim 18.

The dependent claims not specifically address share the same indefiniteness as they depend from rejected base claims.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1-2 (insofar as understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamashita et al (pat # 5,506,516).

As to claims 1-2, Yamashita et al disclose an apparatus for inspecting an array of pixel cells (1) having a plurality of pixel cell (1a) coupled to gate lines (g1,g2,..) and data lines (x1,x2,...xj) and first and second transistors (2b) formed on the substrate.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-20 (insofar as understood) are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3,7-9,11,13 and 15 of U.S. Patent No. 6,437,596. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the limitations of claims 1-3,7-9,11,13 and 15 of U.S. Patent No. 6,437,596 encompass the limitations of the instant claims 1-20.
